NEW AND THRILLING BOOK.

The Last Ninety Days of The War

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

BY CORNELIA PHILLIPS SPENCER.

Edited by Rev. Dr. Deems.

A Portion of this Book appeared in numbers of The Watchman, and attracted great attention in this country and Europe.

Re-written, enlarged with many most important additions, these chapters appear in a handsome volume. The very last acts of the war occurred in North Carolina; the writer was in the midst of them. Moreover, she has had access to the private papers of LEADING ACTORS, and to other sources of information.

No war-book which has yet appeared equals this book in fidelity to truth and in graphic and picturesque description. Nowhere else can the important information in this volume be obtained.

It ought to be in the hands of every one who desires to know how the war was really carried on.

It is a handsome 12mo. volume of 288 pages, elegantly printed, and well bound, and sent by mail, pre paid, for $1.50.

The usual deduction to the trade.

AGENTS wanted for this work everywhere and liberal commissions allowed. Apply for circular.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Nov. 16, 1866.

THE LEGISLATURE meets in this City on Monday next, the 19th. inst.

The Howard Amendment.

It seems not to have occurred to the advocates of the Howard amendment at the North, what impediments lie in the way of honest men in the South, voting for it. The amendment so far as the scheme of representation goes, is all on one side. It is not strange that Northern men can see no objection to this scheme. It enures wholly to the benefit of the Northern States and to the material injury of the Southern. What Northern man understanding its true character, who intended to make his home in the South, (and we hope many of their best men will,) would vote for it? One object of that section is, so to reduce our representation, that in no event could the Southern States ever again be otherwise than a cypher in the Congress; the other is to force negro suffrage upon the South. Now these two objects might be forced upon us, the weak, by the strong, but how could the strong expect us to take them when presented as a choice?

Still more formidable objections lie against the disfranchising clause. It is illiberal as it is unjust, to charge upon the Southern people, that we object to it, because it would exclude us from office. The Southern people never evinced one-half the fondness for office that the Northern people have. If the North would guarantee to the South, good, wise and capable officers and efficient and quiet and wise State governments, our people would care little for the offices. But to vote for that amendment, would leave the South without efficient officers and without State governments. We defy any one to point out competent men in the State for Governor or Judges under the operation of that amendment. Again, it would be a confession that every man thus distranchised, was disloyal, which is not true. It would be punishing the innocent with the guilty. It would be enacting a law too, to punish for a crime committed prior to the enactment of the law. It would involve the Southern people in the gross shame and crime, of voting to punish men for a crime of which many of them were more guilty than the parties punished. They would be putting the "mark of infamy" upon their betters, and then perchance filling their places.

But, it is replied, the South deserves it, and then she must take that or worse. We do not believe our people deserve it, in addition to what they have done and suffered. If the North wants indemnity, security for the future, we answer, if that security has not been fully given, nothing more that we can do, can make the security better. But admit that the South deserves it all and more, ought the Southern people to lay on the stripes? Ought they to do it, when they, by so doing would declare their own infamy and shame?

Finally, the Southern people after the surrender, in obedience to the requirements of the government, subscribed the solemn oath to obey and to support the Constitution of the United States. Now this amendment directly violates that Constitution and is in opposition to it.—Its adoption would render the Constitution antagonistic in its parts. It is not germain to the Constitution, and would render other amendments necessary to put that instrument in harmony with all its parts. Who then, can vote for the amendment who has sworn to obey the Constitution?

The Official Vote.

We gave on yesterday the complete official vote for Governor. The election has not been quite a month over. Tardy as the returns have come in, they are at least three or four weeks earlier than usual, if we remember correctly.—Usually, three or four counties seem to claim special indulgence in the way of tardiness in sending up returns. The improvement in this regard is due to the efforts of our excellent Secretary of State, who facilitated the returns by forwarding to each Sheriff, blank returns, which being made ready to order, were easily executed. We think another trial on the part of Mr. Best, would bring the entire official returns here in ten or fifteen days.—This is very desirable and we hope it will be done hereafter.

It will strike every one, that the vote is exceedingly small. In sixty counties, perhaps, the vote fell short of the actual vote one-third and one-half. In some counties the falling off was greater than one-half. This was particularly the case in those counties where the Holden-Dockery men had but little strength. The certainty of Gov. Worth's election, and the general lack of interest in elections, caused the small vote. If the full vote of the State could be brought out on the direct issue of the Howard amendment on its merits, we incline to the belief that it could not get the votes of one-eighth or one-tenth of the voting population.—Perhaps two-thirds of those who voted for Gen. Dockery are not strait-out Howard amendment men, but would vote for it to avoid what they fear would be a worse fate. The friends of the Howard amendment, without any menace or threat, in the State, are few indeed.

Col. John H. Manly.

We find the following merited tribute to our former townsman and friend in the last Galveston News:

COL. MANLY.—We this morning announce this gentleman as a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court of Galveston and Harriss counties. He needs no introduction to our citizens. His services here, during the war, as a prominent and useful officer of an efficient regiment, made him known favorably to the large majority of Galvestonians. His affability of demeanor, his ability as a lawyer and his decision of character, are also well known. A scion of the best revolutionary stock of North Carolina, he is every way worthy of his lineage.

Who are to be the Speakers!

The Legislature meets on Monday and the question is often asked, "Who are to be the Speakers?" If the question is put to us, we answer, we do not know. There can be no difficulty in selecting two men of the right stamp for those important positions. The only difficulty is the choice among so many.

We judge but little time can be consumed in organization. The people are looking to the Legislature as an active working body—one that will carefully ponder and wisely adopt the best means to the accomplishment of its object, the good of the State.

It is important to have good Speakers, but it is equally so to have good Committee men. There are several subjects which will demand the best men of both Houses to consider and report upon. We hope, therefore, in making selections for Speakers, the claims of the Committees will be consulted.

Pardons.

Warrants of pardon have been received at the Executive Office for the following persons, who can obtain them by personal application or by written attorney:

F. M. Miller, Buncombe County; Wm. B. Parks, Cabarrus; W. W. Green, Cleaveland; Mills E. Eure, Gates; Nat. E. Cannady, Israel W. Hargrave, James A. Smith, Granville; Mert. Burgin, McDowell; Philemon H. Neal, Rockingham; T. H. Snow, Wake; Marshall Osborne, Yadkin.

We extend our ☞ to the worthy Senior of the Journal of Commerce at Newbern, and bid him welcome to this § of the State. He will find the Governor and his friends all right.

For the Sentinel.

Col. J. P. H. Russ.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The names of several very excellent gentlemen have been publicly announced as eminently fit for the Speakership of the House. Messrs. R. Y. McAden, of Alamance, Gen. Dargan, of Anson, Col. Cowan, of New Hanover, Col. Kenan, of Duplin, and Dr. Moore, of Hertford, all excellent men, have been named. Old Wake desires to add to the list, Col. J. P. H. Russ, whose experience in legislation commends him to the favorable notice of the House. Old Wake is indebted much to Col. Russ for the results of the late election, in putting the Holdenite-Howard amendment men hors du combat. OLD WAKE.

For the Sentinel.

Judge Manly.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The West desires to reciprocate the kindness of "An Eastern Man," in commending to the favorable consideration of the Senate, that high toned and incorruptible citizen, J. H. Wilson, Esq., of Mecklenburg, for the office of Speaker. If a knowledge of parliamentary law, gentlemanly demeanor, a high sense of honor which scorns the demagogue, the most ingenuous spirit towards an opponent and devotion to the public good, constitute fitness for that office, then Mr. Wilson would fill it admirably. But in all these respects, it gives the West pleasure to admit, that the Hon. Mathias E. Manly, of Craven, is equally well fitted for that honorable position. If the Speaker of the Senate should be selected from the West, Mr. Wilson would be a capital selection, but if from the East, Judge Manly would be equally so.

MECKLENBURG.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA.—The message of the Governor of Alabama has been sent in to the Legislature. The only portion of general interest is that relative to the constitutional amendment. After reviewing the whole subject, the Governor says: "I am decidedly of the opinion that this amendment should not be ratified. The first section embodies a principle dangerous to the liberties of the people of the whole country, and is as applicable to New York and Massachusetts as Alabama. The third section would bring no possible good to the represented States, while it would reduce the unrepresented to utter anarchy and ruin. We are sincerely desirous of complete restoration to the Union. We want conciliation, harmony and national tranquility. We feel we have given every evidence of honest purpose to conform in good faith to the condition of things surrounding us.

"Alabama is as true to-day to the Constitution and laws of the general government as any State of the Union. Under the internal revenue law tax on cotton, the people of this State are now paying a revenue to the government of nearly $10,000,000 a year. In the enactment of these laws we had no voice. The amendment was proposed when nearly one-third of the States were unrepresented, and all its features are aimed at the States thus excluded. The ratification of such an amendment, under such circumstances, cannot accomplish any good to the country, and might bring irretrievable disaster."

Test Oaths.

In the days before Catholic emancipation in Ireland, a suspicious voter, having taken the prescribed oaths, was rather sharply questioned: "What is your religion?" "Mee religion, is it? Faix, mee religion's the same, savin' yer Honor's prisince, as mee muther's wuz!" "And what was your mother's religion? come, no prevarication." "Mee muther's religion, wud ye have? Shure, an she tuk whiskey in her tay."

Test oaths here at the present time are not different in their workings from what they were before Catholic emancipation in Ireland; in England during the perjury mania at the Revolution; in France while the Jacobin furor was at its height; in parts of this country during the war for independence, when the British and Continental armies alternately advanced and retreated, and the people within the lines swore cheerful allegiance to the Crown or to Congress alternately, as the occasion demanded. Nor is it to be wondered at that an oath frequently and tyrannically demanded, and often for mean and trivial ends, should lose its efficacy and become, in fact, null and void in the minds of the people. The first oath that a man takes, and especially if it be an oath of allegiance, is apt to be one of the most solemn events in his life; but if he is compelled to multiply this solemn oath in order to exist; if it is rammed down his throat at every cross road, and exacted of him before he can buy a pound of coffee or sugar or get a visit from the doctor, as was the case in Southern Maryland during the war, he learns to look upon it as the Irishman did, as a mere matter of "whiskey in his tay"—a bad and disagreeable practice to make a habit of, to be sure, but, under the circumstances, a necessity.

The Vicar of Bray, when he was reproached for the versatility of his talent at changing creeds as the State changed, replied very truly: "Not so, neither! For if I changed my religion, I am sure I kept true to my principle,—that is, to live and die the Vicar of Bray!" Nothing under the sun generates so many Vicars of Bray as a good, stringent test oath severely administered.—Rich. Examiner.

SENEX.

Policy of the South.

The New York World, in a well-considered article in its issue of Monday last, has the following passage:

"We have an abiding conviction that if the people of the Southern States, postponing for the present all thought of direct influence in federal affairs, and all effort to secure representation of all their States in Congress, will set themselves zealously at work to perfect their local State governments, by adapting them to the changed condition of things, they will accomplish, in due time, a moral revolution at the North. If our friends at the South, abstaining for the present from all thought of national legislation, will dedicate themselves, among other things, to the well-being of the now freed negroes, who so faithfully served their masters during the war; if they will make for the protection of this subordinate race all needed State laws; if they will so legislate as to welcome and make secure Northern labor and capital, as well as develope their own wondrous resources, the dominant Republican party will perish for want of a wind-mill to fight, not less than by its own inherent vileness, which must inevitably crop out upon the statute book."

THE GREAT MASONIC CELEBRATION.—The Baltimore Sun, of yesterday, says that it is confidently expected that the display of Grand Templars, with their rich and imposing uniforms, regalias, &c., on the occasion of laying the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple in that city, on Tuesday next, will be the finest sight of the kind ever witnessed on this continent, both in numerical strength and grandeur. It is understood that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have agreed to issue round trip tickets for one full fare from the various points along the line of its road and branches to such parties as may desire to be present on the interesting occasion. The same company have also made arrangements with the Masonic fraternity of Cincinnati, Louisville, Lynchburg, Petersburg and Richmond. In reference to the transportation of members to and from this city,—members are expected from Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Danville, Va., New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and other places. Henry L. Palmer, Esq., Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States, with his subordinate officers, R. McMurdy, Esq., D. D. Grand Prelate of the Grand Encampment of the United States, have been invited, and are expected to be present, as has also B. B. French, Esq., the only Past Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States.

GEORGIA STAY-LAW.—The Senate has passed a bill extending the time, under the relief act, for the payment of the first installment of one-fourth of debts to the 1st of January, 1868, and to apply the benefits of the stay-law to all judgments on claims incurred up to the 1st of January, 1866. The house passed a bill to provide an Agricultural College for the State, under the loan scrip act of Congress.

A GOOD MOVE.—It will be seen that application will be made at the ensuing Legislature for a charter for the North Carolina Savings Insurence & Banking Company. It will be located at Yanceyville or Company's Shops, we presume.

THE YARBORO' HOUSE.—Our friend Riddick is getting this House in capital condition. New furniture and other accompaniments are being added, for the accommodation of his guests.—His energy and disposition to please, will make it no doubt an excellent House. The "Exchange" under the management of Mr. Blair, and the "Yarboro'" under the conduct of Mr. Riddick, we hope will give Raleigh what it has long needed, two of the best Hotels in the South.

COTTON.—The decline in this article is perceptibly affecting the quantity brought to this market. We learn that 25 cts. is what is offered to day. We have no sales to report.

NEWS DEPOT.—We are glad to inform the public that our aged citizen Wm. Thompson, Esq., has established a news depot at his store on Fayetteville Street, where he will furnish the latest newspapers, magazines, &c., on reasonable terms, to all who desire. He will order such as his patrons desire. He will furnish the latest Northern papers soon after the arrival of the mail. He hopes to have his Depot complete in a few days.

WHOLESALING.—Our country merchants who purchase just what they want, we believe are finding it to their advantage to trade with our merchants. We have been astonished at the amount of goods sold in this city this fall.—The wonder is where the money comes from, when the conductors of the public press, complain of seeing so little of it. Alas! there is much human nature in man. He will eat and dress, how much he may neglect to store his mind with useful knowledge.

THE LAND WE LOVE.—We are in receipt of the first No. of volume second, of this excellent monthly. Its contents are highly interesting. The success with which it has met is very flattering to the ability of the publication itself, and equally so to its Editor, Gen. D. H. Hill. Orders for it should be addressed to J. P. Irwin, Esq., Charlotte, N. C., price $3 a year, in advance. All communications pertaining to the editorial department should be addressed to Gen. Hill, Charlotte.

THE RICE CROP.—It is understood that the rice crop of the Cape Fear is almost an entire failure. Before the war, the rice crop of that region was annually about 215,000 bushels. The present year it will not we are told go beyond 20,000 bushels! This is an immense falling off and will most seriously affect the price of the article and the active means of that section.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL Nov. 14th and 15th 1866.—J Lancaster, T M Jones, N H D Wilson, N C; R Miller, Va.; H Pool, S C; C P Cardozo Va; Capt Pierce, N C; Gen. Wm. R Cox, City; Wm Sloan, N C; D F Bartholon, Baltimore; A H Kendall, G V Strong, N C; Gen W Burns, U S A; C K Field, Phila; J P Moore, N C; C A Foster, Mass; M Stine, Baltimore; J S Van Pelt, Va; T Page Ricaud, Wm H Dennis, N C; John Ward, Milton; Gen A J Dargan, J M Long, S A Foust, N C.

The direct mail route from Newbern to Washington has been discontinued, and letters and papers for Washington must go via Goldsboro', Tarboro' and Greenville. So says the Newbern Journal of Commerce.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

HARD ON MR. BUREAU.—One of the 'Bureau' officials, while traveling last week in the cars in Alabama, noticed a lady with a negro girl in attendance, and he remarked: 'Madame, I see you have one of my children.' 'Yes, sir,' replied the lady, 'I perceive the resemblance!'—A slight tittering was observed in that part of the car, and the 'Buresu' he left.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

Dedication of the Cemetery at Spottsylvania Court House, and the Proceedings of the Day—Speeches, &c.

The sun rose bright and beautiful, and at an early hour the people began to assemble to mingle in the sad and mournful scene—in commemoration of our noble Confederate dead.—At 12 o'clock the concourse moved off in solemn procession to the burial ground, and with sad faces the throng met in the center of the square, and the Rev. Mr. Chancellor addressed the Throne of Grance in solemn, earnest prayer.—At the conclusion of the prayer, the Rev. F. L. Kregel (leaning on a spade) delivered the dedicatory address. He spoke with much tenderness and beauty, and his remarks were listened to with the most profound attention. His allusions to the noble heroes, whose ashes lie mingled with the soil of Spottsylvania, were given with great fervor and eloquence. After the address the crowd moved slowly back, and met in the church, and Captain Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, proceeded to deliver his address, which was entirely impromptu, but was most happily conceived and well expressed.—He dwelt on the justice and the right of our loved and ill-fated cause, and in conclusion related a most touching incident of a young man who died in his company. The speaker said that he was sent for to see the dying youth, and grasping his hand, the poor fellow said: "Captain, I have fought a good fight; I am dying. I have tried to do my duty, and I sent for you to get your approval before I die. Tell them at home I died at my post."

After the address, Mr. R. M. Read recited the Conquered Banner most beautifully, being the most artistic rendition of the poem I had ever heard.

Then the crowd adjourned for dinner, and hot coffee and oysters demanded a premium.—After dinner, the assembly again convened to hear the lecture of Colonel F. R. Farrar, who had been invited to attend in the absence of General Wise. We make no comment on the Colonel's effort. He has now been so long before our people, and has been so enthusiastically received everywhere, that we can only say that we never heard him speak with more effect, swaying the audience at his will.

The absence of Gen Wise was most deeply lamented, and Dr. Hoge was expected, and the ladies were at a loss to fill up the time as expected. But the day passed pleasantly, and all went home satisfied with the ceremonies of the occasion. The cemetery is on a beautiful hill, with a commanding view of all the leading points of interest. It contains 15 acres, divided into four grand divisions—A, B, C and D; subdivided into 15 lesser squares, ninety feet to each square. In the centre there is a circle 200 feet in diameter to be set in evergreens and flowers. There is a beautiful drive around the ground, and four carriage-ways to the centre.—About 1,200 Confederates lie near this spot.—Sweet be the rest of the voiceless sleepers; green be the turf above their ashes, "Blessed memory, blessed memory." In the words of another, "They are not dead, they will yet live. Heaven's adjutant has inscribed them in his book of martyrdom, and eternity will seal their testimony to the truth."

ROANOKE LAND FOR SALE.

AS Attorney, I shall sell, on the premises, for Cash, ON THE 26TH. DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1866, At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, the celebrated plantation of MR. T. P. BURGWYN, KNOWN AS

ALVESTON, CONTAINING
1,200 Acres, More or Less,

lying in Occoneechie Neck, Northampton county, North Carolina.

This is one of the most beautiful plantations in the whole country, and is surpassed in fertility and productiveness by none in North Carolina. Most of it is high table land, a red soil, cleared and in a high state of cultivation. It is admirably adapted to the production of COTTON, WHEAT, & INDIAN CORN.

It is well stocked with negro laborers, the former slaves of the estate, who are attached to the place, and can be easily induced to remain by a prudent purchaser. It also has on it several very good white tenants,—good and honest farmers—and is in much demand by this class of tenants. The Barns and Laborers' Houses are very good.

THE MANSION HOUSE

is sufficiently good. It is situated on the Roanoke river, below the head of navigation, and in the immediate neighborhood of four railroads leading to Norfolk, Petersburg, Wilmington, and Raleigh.

A plantation of equal value has not been offered for sale in Northampton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to omit it.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

NOTIONS,

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.
